CITY MAY CLAIM BOND

Action Is Taken to Recover $100,000 Obligation of Home Phone Co.

Mayor Mott Declares Provisions of Franchise Have Been Violated

Initial action to recover on a $100,000 personal bond given by J. S. Torrance, T. W. Phillips, Philip E. Bowles, William Thomas and Mark L. Gerstel for the Bay Cities Home Telephone Company to insure the city of Oakland against that company violating the terms of its contract was taken by the Oakland City Council this morning. The resolution directing City Attorney Ben F. Woolner to commence proceedings to protect the rights of the city was passed at the instance of Mayor Frank K. Mott this morning.

Mayor Mott explained that the city had received information through the daily newspapers that the Home Telephone Company had merged with the Pacific States Telegraph and Telephone Company and that this was in violation of the terms of the franchise granted the Home Telephone Company in 1906.

CITES AGREEMENT.

The Home Telephone Company agreed not to transfer or assign or sell its holdings without the consent of the Oakland City Council. No application had been made for such permission, and the company has merged with the Pacific States Company.

James, the city attorney to take the master and investigate what action may be taken to recover from the company and to protect the rights of the people. I have a resolution directing him to investigate and recommend the proper legal action to recover on the bond of the company."

Investigation in the files of City Clerk Frank Thompson developed the fact that the Home company had filed a $100,000 personal bond with the city December 6, 1905, and that the company had not had a surety company go on its bond. All the names of the bondsmen are men of standing in the local business world.

The bondsmen are as follows: J. S. Torrance, $20,000; T. W. Phillips, $20,000; William Thomas, $20,000; Mark L. Gerstel, $20,000; Phillips, $20,000. The bond is signed by William Thomas, president, and Lloyd Ackerman, secretary.

MAYOR'S RESOLUTION.

Resolution requiring the City Attorney to ascertain and determine the right of the city of Oakland in relation to the merger of the Home Telephone Company of Alameda county with the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company, a corporation, and requesting said City Attorney to advise the Council as to the legal action necessary to be taken in the premises.

Whereas, it appears to this Council that on or about the 16th day of March, 1912, the Home Telephone Company of Alameda county, its successors and assigns transferred and conveyed to the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company, a corporation, its properties, franchises, etc., owned by it within the corporate limits of the city of Oakland; and

Whereas, under Ordinance No. 2430 passed by the City Council of the city of Oakland on the 15th day of January, 1906, and approved by the Mayor of said city February 2, 1906, and under the eleventh provision thereof, the sale of said Home Telephone Company, its successors or assigns,

HARRIS IS BIGAMIST, CHARGE

Missing 'Six-Footer' Wanted by Deserted Woman, Who Has Warrant

Mrs. Mary Todd Erroneously Believed Herself to Be Mrs. Harris for Three Months

With the police and several state women on his trail, Al R. Harris, in the prime of his manhood and standing 6 feet 2 inches in his socks and weighing 255 pounds, is being sought in Oakland and San Francisco, suspected of having duped half a dozen women into pretenses of marriage.

The disappearance of Harris was reported to the police this morning by Mrs. Mary A. Todd of 236 Thirteenth street, who until this morning believed herself to be Mrs. Al R. Harris.

"Harris is a crook, and if the police can get him I will have a warrant for his arrest ready for him," said Mrs. Mary Todd-Harris this morning. "I can charge him with obtaining money under false pretenses, if nothing else."

"While he was living with me he had another woman who thought she was his wife. She is in the Oakdale and a third called on me this morning and exposed some of his going-on. It is not only women of his own age, but young girls that he has duped."

BELIEVES HE HAS FAMILY.

"I think that Harris has a wife and children somewhere, but I don't think we can get him for bigamy. I found out this morning that he had never recorded our marriage certificate, although we were married three months ago."

Mrs. Todd-Harris asked the police to

Finds Body of Father Hanging by a Rope

ALAMEDA, March 19.—Leroy Badger, former employee of the San Francisco Gas and Electric company, committed suicide this morning by hanging himself in the basement of his home at 160 Park avenue. He had secured a noose about his neck and had dropped from the joists of the basement. He was found dead by his nineteen year daughter. Badger had been in ill health for the last few months and it is supposed that this was the cause of the act. He was 70 years of age.

WASHINGTON, March 19.—The Democratic excise income tax bill passed the House, unamended, this afternoon by a vote of 249 to 41. Many Republicans voted for it.

Instructor W. K. Gaylord Dies in Berkeley Hospital

BERKELEY, March 19.—Wallace K. Gaylord, an instructor in chemistry at the University of California, died today at the Alta Bates sanitarium as the result of an operation for appendicitis. He had been a member of the university faculty for about three years. He leaves a widow, Mrs. May Gaylord, and two sons, Frederick G. and John W. Gaylord. The remains will be shipped to Pasadena for interment.

Woman's Voice Hath Charms to Soothe Insane

LOS ANGELES, March 19.—Because he believes women's voices calm the insane much more quickly than those of men, Dr. J. A. Reilly, the new superintendent of the California Hospital for the Insane at Patton, in a statement made public here today, declined his intention of replacing all male nurses of that institution with women. "Women have a better and gentler influence over insane patients than men," stated Dr. Reilly. "The insane are more amenable to the soft word of a woman than to the threat or command of a man. I have never found many too insane to forget her respect for a woman."

Denied Pleasure of Dance, Girl Bride Takes Poison

LOS ANGELES, March 19.—Because her husband had forbidden her to attend dances Mrs. Marjorie, 17 years of age, committed suicide by taking poison and her body lay here today awaiting an inquest. Shortly after taking the poison Mrs. Noves told her husband what she had done. He thought she was joking until she was seized with terrible pain and then summoned a physician. It was too late however, to save her life.

There are three theories behind the case. One is that it is an arsenic bolt which has collided with arsenic and become fused, and the other that it represents two large gauze envelopes both flaming.

DECISION IN COAL WAR NEAR

Result of Conference to Be Known Tomorrow; 500,000 Men May Quit Work

Operators Demand Wage Decrease; Miners Ask for Decided Increase

CHICAGO, March 19.—Announcement was made from the Illinois Coal Operators Association today that it would be practically impossible for miners and operators in the bituminous fields to reach a new agreement by April 1 and that a suspension on that date was certain.

CLEVELAND, March 19.—Whether there will be war or peace in the bituminous fields at the expiration of the present contracts on March 31 will be known, it was said today, by the end of the first session of the conference of operators and miners of western Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois; here tomorrow.

Three hundred and six thousand bituminous miners in the United States and Canada will abide by the result of the conference and if a strike is called nearly 500,000 men will quit work on April 1 when it was predicted the anthracite miners also will walk out.

That the miners may be one of the gang of safe-crackers who started to tunnel under the Bank of Commerce at Seventeenth and San Pablo avenue a month ago in a search for treasure is the theory that is being run down by the detectives working on the case.

Anthracite miners also will walk out.

That the miners demand a wage increase.

The best either party hopes for is a compromise.

Representatives of the operators, eight from each of the four states, will meet here today in preliminary conference. If the agreement is not renewed, work will stop automatically April 1 but any action of the miners representatives must be favored in a referendum vote by the miners before it becomes legal.

SCARE SUBSIDES.

NEW YORK, March 19.—There was a subsidence of the anthracite strike scare today and in consequence there was a falling off in the pressing demand for hard coal from frightened consumers.

The belief is gaining ground that an agreement will be reached and that if there is a suspension of work April 1, it will not last long.

The report from the west that President Taft might be asked to take a hand in the situation to avert a strike was read with interest, but there was no comment made by the operators. Local hotels, hospitals and transient lines are well stocked with coal in preparation for a long strike.

TAFT MAY TAKE HAND.

CHICAGO, March 19.—The Record-Herald says:

"President Taft may take a hand in the coal situation to avert a strike in the anthracite fields.

"Alarmed over the political possibilities of a general strike of com-miners, the president is said to be preparing to follow the precedent established by his predecessor in 1902 and bring pressure to bear on the anthracite coal operators to make concessions in the interests of peace.

"To gain information on the subject President Taft has called John

Mitchell, former president of the United Mine Workers, to Washington

for a conference."

STRIKE SPREADS.

DENAIN, France, March 19.—The strike which broke out yesterday among the coal miners here is extending throughout the district. Of the 18,000 miners attached to the pits about 7000 have quit. They demand

8-hour day and a pension of 40 cents a day at the conclusion of 25 years service.

TO END STRIKE.

BERLIN, March 19.—The leaders of the miners' union decided during their session at Potsdam today to terminatthe coal strike in Westphalia, as they consider it futile.

KAISER STARTS BIG WAR SCARE ALL EYES TURN UPON BRITAIN

EMPEROR WILLIAM of Germany, who unintentionally started a war scare which is keeping all Europe guessing.

Emperor's Sudden Double Shift of Plans Causes Sensation in Europe

BERLIN, March 19.—The unexpected announcement that Emperor William had postponed his departure for Vienna, Venice and Corfu, coupled as the announcement was with a weak excuse for the postponement, caused a thrill of apprehension to sweep over Germany today. Another war scare with England, as usual, the cause of the fright, took hold of citizens and officials alike, and was allayed only when the Kaiser announced hastily, and as unexpectedly as his former announcement, that his original plans for the trip would be carried out. He will depart Friday.

"Difficulties in the sphere of international politics" were given as the excuse for postponing the trip up to March 22. It was considered likely by officials, and all eyes were turned toward England, where Winston Churchill's latest utterances have helped to keep bitter the unfriendliness between the Germans and the English.

No reason, good or bad, has so far been given for the emperor's sudden decision to go—for his remarkably sudden change of mind within a few hours. But there is a general belief that the Kaiser was more worried over the war scare in his own country and elsewhere than he was about the prospect of war; that if there must be a fight he didn't want so much preliminary talk about it. It is evident, according to official circles, that the Kaiser did not look for so much of a stir when he announced the postponement of his trip else he would not have done so. But rumors spread thick and fast from capital to capital and the emperor deemed it wisest, in order to stave off alarm to cancel the trip even if his presence were needed in Germany.

There is a strong disposition here, however, to connect the emperor's action with the speech delivered yesterday by Winston Spencer Churchill, first lord of the admiralty, in the British House of Commons. This view is strengthened by the fact that the emperor, in the course of the morning, paid a long visit to Admiral Albert

ELIJETTSVILLE, Ind., March 19.—Five men were killed outright today by a passenger train on the Chicago, Indianapolis and Louisville Railroad, which ran into the buggy in which they were crossing the track. Four of the men were thrown clear of the track, but the body of one was caught by the pilot of the locomotive and carried a mile and a half to this city.

A Trial Will Convince Anyone
---The Great Kidney Remedy Never Disappoints

A few years ago I was troubled with a complication of kidney and stomach ailments and although I tried two or three different doctors, I was unable to obtain a cure. Having heard a great deal about Swamp-Root, I decided to give it a trial and purchased a one-dollar bottle of Mr. Alexander, the biggest. From the beginning I could drink a glass a day for the better and after taking eight bottles of your medicine I felt entirely cured and have not had any trouble since.

Had I begun using Swamp-Root sooner I would have been a few hundred dollars to the good and saved myself a lot of suffering.

You may use my testimonial any time you wish. Yours very truly,

P. Von Thitzpitz, secretary of the imperial navy, immediately after which the leading officers of the admiralty staff assembled in conference, the object of which is not disclosed.

The reason which originally impelled the emperor to change the plans of his foreign trip must have been quite complete, as it would have involved the embarrassment of Emperor Francis Joseph of Austria and King Victor Emmanuel of Italy, whose arrangements for the meeting have been made.

SPEECH "INOPPORTUNE."

Public opinion on the speech of Winston Spencer Churchill has not crystallized, but his reference to Garibaldi, who is regarded in many quarters as highly inopportune in view of the attempts being made to reach an understanding between the two countries. The negotiations which followed on the trip to Berlin of Viscount Haldane, British secretary of state for war, are still continuing, but any big blow of their guns has not yet been entertained as falling gradually.

The negotiators would now be stalled in all probability, if they could achieve no more than a simple removal of the source of misunderstanding which hitherto has existed.

The trouble was well today, operators regarding Churchill's speech as to a certain extent unfriendly to Germany, and the postponement of the Corfu visit of the emperor giving birth to many rumors in regard to the internal and foreign situation. Government stocks were generally still.

SCORES CHURCHILL.

COLOGNE, Germany, March 19.—After replying today to the speech made yesterday by Winston Spencer Churchill in the British House of Commons, the Cologne Gazette adopts an unusually sharp tone. It says in substance that Great Britain must decide from the standpoint of her own interests what increases of her fleet is necessary and that Germany must do the same thing. It continues:

"Germany will hardly ever have a navy equal to that of Great Britain, but if Germany's navy is to be destroyed, the victory will cost so heavily that England will hardly have any resources left to defend its great international interests."

WOODMEN TO ERECT $140,000 BUILDING

A five-story building to cost $140,000 and cover a space 100x150 feet is to be erected at Sixteenth and Jefferson streets by the Woodmen of the World. Since 1909 the lodge has had the structure under advisement, and all the money to complete the operation is in the hands of the committee and the plans have been drawn by architect F. D. Voorhees to be put into effect at once.

The first floor will be leased for store accommodations, and the second will house the lodgerooms and offices. The third floor will be arranged into a large banquet room and offices. The fourth and fifth floors will be devoted entirely to offices in suites, with the exception of one large dance hall. There will be a summer garden constructed on the roof.

Dr. George H. Derrick, Thomas M. Robinson, Jacob Williams, Archibald T. Taff and A. E. Tower are members of the building committee.

Commissioners Declare Provisions of Franchise Have Been Violated.

signs, or any of its properties, franchises, rights or privileges is prohibited unless the consent of the city of Oakland evidenced by ordinance duly passed by the City Council shall first be obtained therefor;

Whereas, upon the granting of said franchise and conditioned for the faithful performance of the terms thereof, said Home Telephone Company filed a bond running to the city of Oakland in the penal sum of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000), therefore be it

Resolved, That the City Attorney of the city of Oakland be and he is hereby directed and authorized to determine the legal rights of the city of Oakland with reference to said transfer by said Home Telephone Company to said Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company and to advise the City Council as to the legal steps necessary to be taken to protect the rights of the city of Oakland in connection with said matter.

BERKELEY TO ACT.

BERKELEY, March 19.—Mayor J. Stitt Wilson suggested in council meeting this morning an action against the Home Telephone Company to declare forfeit its bond of $25,000, put up when the company secured its franchise as an evidence of good faith in carrying out the terms of the franchise. The Mayor declared that the company had apparently forfeited this bond by its recently effected merger with the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company. The council directed the City Attorney to present at once a plan of action against the company.

The Mayor cited first that section of the franchise in which the Home Telephone Company promised not to "transfer its property or any of the rights or privileges authorized or granted by said franchise" without the consent of the town of Berkeley. The Mayor continued: "Unless there is some serious loophole in the law or which we are unaware, the representatives of the Bay Cities Home Telephone Company have violated this section of the ordinance."

"Now the Bay Cities Telephone Company is held under a bond in the sum of $25,000 that they shall well and truly observe, fulfill and perform each and every term and condition of said franchise, and in case of any breach of the conditions of this obligation, the whole amount of the penal sum named shall be taken by the city of Berkeley. This bond is signed by Robert N. Frick, the vice-president, and G. B. Ocheltree, the secretary of the Bay Cities Home Telephone Company. It is dated May 2, 1911. The Fidelity and Deposit Company of Baltimore, Maryland, is the surety for the company.

"Acting under Section 23 of Article 6 of the charter, by which the Mayor is charged with the general supervision of all public utilities and by which the Mayor shall institute such action or proceeding as may be necessary to prosecute public utilities companies for violations of law, I have addressed a letter to the city attorney, asking for legal advice in proceedings against the officers of the Bay Cities Home Telephone Company.

"In presenting this matter to the council I request your concurrence before instituting the necessary legal action and prosecuting the representatives of the Bay Cities Telephone Company for violation of the ordinance. We can also ask the city attorney for a statement concerning the matter before instituting proceedings, or we can instruct him to proceed at once in the case."

The council briefly considered the situation and finally directed the city attorney at his earliest convenience to report of what action he advised in the premises.

HAS TWO CHILDREN.

Sidna Allen has two pretty children, both girls, Marguerite aged 10, and Pauline, aged 6.

"I do not know if Sidna is lying wounded, perhaps starving to death," said Mrs. Allen, "but regardless of what he did in County Court Thursday, I left our home the night before the shooting happened and my husband was still there. As I kissed him good-bye he told me to do everything I could for our two little children and be kind to his dog and cat."

MADE TWO CHILDREN.

"I have no idea where Sidna went when he left Thursday," she continued. "I only wish I did. I wish there never had been a gun made. I left our home the night before the shooting happened and my husband was still there. As I kissed him good-bye he told me to do everything I could for our two little children and be kind to his dog and cat."

DO NOT BELIEVE SID PLOTTED TO SHOOT THE COURT OFFICERS.

"If I knew where he was I would go to him and nurse him. He is a good man with many virtues, and one fault—his ungovernable temper, which makes him a wild man when he is aroused."

Mrs. Allen inquired about the condition of Floyd Allen, now in jail at Roanoke, when told he was improving.

"Too bad he did not die, don't you think?"

The opinion was expressed today that the members of the detective posse going in and out of Hillsdale daily are being used as a blind to throw the Alisons and their friends off their trail. It is known that Chief Tom Feltz and at least a dozen of his men, all of whom are familiar with the mountain section, have scattered themselves on hills and among the roadways over which the outlaws travel on foot. The detectives say that none of the hunted men had a horse when he left home.

MAY BE SURROUNDED.

MOUNT AIRY, N. C., March 19.—Officers here deny that the Alisons are surrounded in the Squirrel Spur section. They say that if the Alisons had been located the officers of Mount Airy know nothing of it.

LEAVE TO JOIN POSSE.

MOUNT AIRY, N. C., March 19.—Several citizens left Mount Airy at daybreak for Squirrel Spur, 12 miles away, in the Blue Ridge mountains of Virginia, just across the state line, to aid in the capture of the Alison gang.

The opinion is held that they have been located prove true. The men responded to a call from the head of the posse when a urgent request by telegraph last night that every available man in town come to the scene of the supposed round-up. The men were heavily armed and carried provisions for several days.

BOSTON, March 19.—Sidney W. Winslow, president, William Barbour, George W. Brown, Edward F. Hurd and Elmer P. Howe, directors of the United Shoe Machinery Company, under indictment on the charge of maintaining a monopoly on interstate shoe machinery business, pleaded not guilty today when arraigned in the United States District Court. They were held in $10,000 each for trial at a date not fixed. The defendants, in view of the recent decision of the United States Supreme Court sustaining an unenacted patent monopoly, requested another hearing before the time of the trial should be fixed. The request was granted by Judge Dodge.

GUNBOATS FIRE UPON CANTON

Bandits Under Luk Reply Vigorously; Threaten to Shell Foreign Quarter

American and British Consuls General Conflict Over Question of Intervention

HONGKONG, March 19.—A flotilla of Chinese gunboats opened fire on the foreign forts at Canton today. The forts have been in the hands of the followers of Luk, the brigand chief, for a week past, since the soldiers mutinied and handed them over to the robbers. The robbers replied vigorously to the bombardment of the gunboats.

Luk yesterday declared that if his followers, whom he called the "people's army," failed to gain victory over the government, they would shell the foreign quarter in order to force the foreign intervention.

The fort of Tung Whampoo and Fu Mun, on the Canton river, recently captured by the bandit soldiers, were retaken today by the government troops after a long cannonade. The bandits suffered severe losses.

The government authorities bought up all the bread and canned meat in the stores in the city in order to starve the bandits into submission. In the opinion of authoritative persons here, the trouble is far from being ended.

EUROPEAN QUARTER STORMED. SWATOW, China, March 19.—During the fighting here Saturday and Sunday shots fell on Kotow Island, where the European residents now are injured, but there was considerable excitement and the Japanese landed a detachment of troops.

A rifle in the hands of a Japanese soldier went off accidentally, which alarmed the disordered Chinese that they at once scattered.

The casualties among the local soldiers and the Cantonese troops exceeded 100. General Ling now is in control of the city. The remainder of the local troops have retreated to the north, whether they were being pursued by the Cantonese soldiers.

OPINIONS CONFLICT. CANTO, China, March 19.—A conflict of opinion has arisen between Leo Allen, American consular general here, and the British consul-general on the question of international action.

The senior naval officer of the United States gunboat Wilmington is in command of the foreign naval forces, while a British officer holds the foreign settlement of Shah Meen with a force consisting of four-fifths British and one-fifth French troops.

The situation has become so serious that a telegram has been sent to Hongkong asking for advice, and in response Commodore Creswell J. Eyres, the British naval officer in charge at Hongkong, is on his way.

VICEROY RESIGNS. SAN FRANCISCO, March 19.—Viceroy Chan Quing Ling of Canton resigned yesterday, according to a cablegram received today from Hong Kong by the Chong Sai Yat Po. The Viceroy received numerous telegrams urging him to remain in office until peace could be brought about at Canton. His resignation has not been accepted by the Assembly.

The treasurer of Canton announced yesterday that new silver and copper coins would be placed in circulation immediately.

locate the missing man this morning, and at the same time informed them that he had employed private detective agency to find the man. Harris left his happy home with Mrs. Mary Todd Harris in Oakland March 5 to go to San Francisco.

With him, Harris took $125 belonging to Mrs. Todd-Harris, to purchase a share in a San Francisco cigar store, he said. His Oakland wife has not seen him since, and although that this is not the first money he has given her, she promises to receive him with a warrant for his arrest.

HAS A "WAY" WITH HIM. The missing man is a giant of propulsive appearance and with a "way" with him that makes him popular with the fair sex. Mrs. Todd-Harris declares that he is irresistible. If no knowledge of his past performance is known, Harris is 14 years of age.

Mrs. Harris has conducted a small lodging house at 326 Thirteenth street. She met Harris, she says, about five years ago, but lost track of him until very recently. Then she met him in Oakland, and the man paid ardent court to her. The two were married about three months ago, and lived happily ever since.

The wife was puzzled about the absence of her spouse for only two days at a time, and the suspicions generated at that time crystallized when the man disappeared altogether with her $125. She placed a private detective agency on his trail, with the result that the detectives discovered half a dozen other women claiming to be the only and original Mrs. Harris.

Mrs. Harris refused to give out the names of her sisters in trouble this morning. She contented herself with hurling maledictions in the direction of San Francisco, where she believes Harris has concealed himself under the wings of his latest paramour.

Foul play was feared by the despatcher at first for her victim was a husband, but further investigation dispelled this illusion. This morning she visited the county office and failed to find any record of her marriage to Harris. It was then that she notified the police.

Contracts for the construction of main outlet sewers in sanitary districts Nos. 2 and 8 will be awarded by the Oakland city council to F. H. Dahnke as the lowest of eight bidders on both contracts. Recommendations that these contracts be let to Dahnke were filed with the city council this morning by Commissioner of Streets W. J. Bacus.

Dahnke will be asked to appear before the council before the award is made, to show that he is in a position to carry on the work on both jobs to completion within the time限.

The bids were $14,777.30 below the two bids for the same work offered two weeks ago by William Haney, when the contracts were first advertised.

The first bid was thrown out ten days ago on account of legal technicalities.

MAKES RECOMMENDATION.

Action will be taken on the recommendation as follows:

The commissioner of streets to whom was referred the matter of certain street work, begs leave to report as follows:

For the construction of sewers in Seminary avenue, etc., lowest bidder F. H. Dahnke, for $12,432.45

For the construction of sewers in Street First, Seventy-seventh avenue, etc., lowest bidder F. H. Dahnke, for $29,672.26.

I herewith transmit for your consideration resolutions awarding the contracts to F. H. Dahnke in accordance with the above report and rejecting all other bids. However, before this resolution is passed, I suggest that Dahnke be cited by the city clerk to appear before the council and show that he will be able to complete the work within the time given. This work is of the utmost importance and no delay should be tolerated.

Respectfully submitted,
W. J. BACUS,
Commissioner of Streets.

SCHOOL VACATION MAY BE LONGER

Summer Period of Rest May Be Extended to Eight Weeks.

Mothers' clubs and the Child's Welfare League will be permitted to hold meetings in the schools of this city without permission of the board of education, provided, if the recommendation introduced by Miss Annie Piercson Brown at a committee meeting held last evening in the City Hall Annex is carried.

The question of changing the summer vacation so as to come the period from June 28 to the last Monday in August was broached by a committee of representatives from the local schools composed of H. D. Brasfield of the John C. Fremont High school, John Sutton of the Oakland High school, and H. C. Patray of the Grant school. "This change" would provide for an eight weeks' vacation instead of six weeks as has been the custom.

The Oakland Board has taken the matter under advisement and will probably make a report at the next regular meeting.

A delegation of representatives from the bricklayers' union appeared before the board, spoke in favor of using brick instead of reinforced concrete in the new steel building.

MEN TO TEACH.

ALBANY, March 19.—Five men from the student body of the University of California, sent out by Professor Hermon C. Chapman, visited Albany Sunday afternoon and met the superintendent and some of the boys of the Marin Avenue Methodist Sunday school and agreed to furnish teachers for the boys' classes in the school.

TEACHER ENDS HER LIFE WITH POISON UNIVERSITY GRADUATE FEARED FUTURE

Miss Clara Keeler Drinks Fatal Poison; Illness Stood in Path of Matrimony

BERKELEY, March 19.—For four days Miss Clara Louise Keeler, graduate of the University of California, kept close at hand a little package of cyanide of potassium before she could nerve herself yesterday afternoon to end her life.

Finally, despondent from the belief that the ill health she had suffered for a year would ultimately prevent her marriage to her sweetheart, John Wilson, a teacher at Whittier, she swallowed the deadly drug and died almost instantly.

Miss Keeler was the daughter of Charles M. Keeler, a bookseller for the West Berkeley Lumber Company. She was 27 years ago, a graduate of the university with the class of 1908. Following the suicide her body was removed to the morgue, where an inquest will be held at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

Miss Keeler had been worrying for some time about her illness, from which she had not been free for a year, but had never shown to her family any signs of a suicidal mania. Yesterday afternoon she was engaged in her room when her mother stepped out, to go to a neighbor's residence, and was gone for half an hour. Returning, she called for her daughter and received no response.

Miss Keeler hastened upstairs to her daughter's apartment and found the girl lying lifeless across her bed. She hastily summoned Dr. J. W. Stitt, who determined that death had occurred several minutes before. Beside the girl lay a small emptied package of cyanide of potassium.

LEAVES MESSAGES.

Besides a letter, she is believed to have written to her sweetheart, Wilson, Miss Keeler left two notes to her mother.

NEW YORK, March 19.—Following J. P. Morgan's long sojourn in Egypt this winter, reports have reached this city to the effect that he is negotiating for the purchase and removal to America of the famous ruins of the Temple of Philae. The temple is threatened with destruction owing to the rise in the level of the Upper Nile as a result of the enlargement of the Assuan dam. The ancient edifice is already partly submerged, and the completion of the dam extension promises to obliterate the entire ruin.

The cost of the work which Mr. Morgan is said to contemplate would be more than $8,000,000.

American Financier Desires to Bring Famous Ruins to This Country.

WASHINGTON, March 19.—Mrs. Helen M. Couden, wife of Rear-Admiral Albert Reynolds Couden, U. S. N., retired, has brought suit in the District Supreme Court for a limited divorce and maintenance. She alleged that she cannot learn her husband's whereabouts and that the $100 a month he allows her is insufficient for her support.

Mrs. Couden, then Mrs. Addicks, married the admiral in Philadelphia in 1885, and they lived together until about a year ago. At the Navy Department it is stated that Admiral Couden is living in Michigan City, his native city.

PRISON ESCAPE WANTS TO RETURN TO SERVE TIME

SAN FRANCISCO, March 19.—"I am a traitor and an ingrate and have broken faith with the warden of the Oregon penitentiary. My conscience troubles me and I want to go back and finish my sentence."

Joseph McMillen, convicted forger, who surrendered himself to the police here yesterday after running away from the Salem, Ore., prison, made the above explanation today.

McMillen had been released under "the honor system" after serving six months of a two years' sentence.

WOMEN, NOT MEN TO SAVE WORLD

Woman Police Officer Declares
Her Sex Is More Highly Civilized.

Mrs. Alice Stebbins Wells, the woman police officer of Los Angeles, declared this morning in Chabot Hall, that women are more highly civilized than men. Charles E. Keyes, principal of the Oakland High School, introduced Mrs. Wells. In a few terse remarks she stated that women and girls will do more to save the world than the men. Six hundred girls of Oakland High School heard the address.

"There is hope that many of you girls will become police officers when you are old enough," she said. "You have many years to prepare for it. You must have the standards of efficiency and morality, which comes through education. Our police department should rank with other branches of our life."

"Women are more highly civilized than men as they have come under the dominion of self-control. Motherhood has brought us under self-control. Men have been more dominant."

Women are more virtuous. We have a double standard of morality and the girls should insist upon the single standard. I insist that the boys and men come under the domain of self-control.

"It is the virtue of women that has given the present supremacy to the Anglo-Saxon race. Spain is a fifth-rate nation because her women have not kept up the standard of morality."

MANY CITIES WOULD

WASHINGTON, March 19.—Colonel Roosevelt's trip to the Central states next week promises to develop into a more comparative speaking tour than either he or his managers contemplated.

Since the announcement was made that he would speak in Chicago, St. Paul or Minneapolis and St. Louis, the National Roosevelt headquarters have received scores of telegrams from cities along the route asking to be put on the schedule of the tour.

Aids Nature

The great success of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in curing weak stomachs, wasted bodies, long, long, and obstinate and lingering coughs, is based on the recognition of the fundamental truth that "Golden Medical Discovery" supplies Nature with body-building, tissue-repairing, muscle-making materials, in condensed and concentrated form. With this help Nature supplies the necessary strength to the stomach to digest food, build up the body and thereby throw off obstinate coughs. The "Discovery" re-establishes the digestive and nutritive organs in sound health, purifies and enriches the blood, and nourishes the nerves—in short establishes sound vigorous health.

SANTA FE DEADLOCKED IN BALLOT FOR SENATORS

Democrats, With One-Third of Vote, Lead
in Today's Contest

SANTA FE, N. M., March 19.—The first ballot for two United States Senators resulted in a deadlock here today. No election of senators is expected today.

Although the Democrats have less than one-third of the votes in the Legislature, the Democratic candidates led in today's balloting, the Republicans casting complimentary votes for favorite sons.

The ballot follows:

Democrats—Felix Martinez, 23; A. A. Jones, 22.

Republicans—William J. Mills, 21; A. B. Fall, 17; W. H. Andrews, 12; T. E. Catron, 11; R. L. Baca, 6; O. A. Larrazolo, 6; W. D. Murray, 4; Venceslao Jarillo and Nathan Jaffa, 2 each; L. Bradford Prince Powell, Stackhouse, Nemecio, Apodaca, Jose D. Serna, Solomon, L. Samiel Bushman, Gregory Pugo, Thomas D. Sims, 1 each; Herbert J. Hagerman, "progressive," 4; and Geo. W. Fritchard, progressive, 2.

GET BY THEMSELVES.

The trap set by the Republican state central committee last night in which four members of the House, Jose P. Lujero and Julian C. Trujillo of Rio Arriba, and John J. Morrissey and E. Montoya of Taos county, were arrested charged with accepting bribes to vote for certain senatorial candidates, was declared today by the accused men to have been set by themselves to catch the "higher ups."

The resignations of the accused men, prepared last night, were presented to the House by State Chairman V. Jaramillo. A communication from the prisoners also presented to the House, asserted that their resignations had been secured through coercion that they would withdraw their demand of a thorough investigation. Subsequently the House adopted a resolution authorizing the appointment of a committee of 15 to investigate the alleged bribery charges.

As the hour for the senatorial ballot approached the feeling in the House grew more bitter. A resolution to appoint former Supreme Judge E. R. Wright counsel for the bribery investigation committee was adopted, 26 to 12.

VERBAL CLASH.

Another resolution to remand the accused members to the custody of the sergeant-at-arms was offered and lost to a verbal clash between Speaker Baca and Representative Tombs, because the speaker ordered the sergeant-at-arms to bring in all absent members for taking action on the resolution, which was voted down and adjourned, and the four recalcitrant members were suspended.

According to State Chairman Jaramillo and other officials, Judge A. B.

TURNER KEPT AT HOME BY ILLNESS

Commissioner Strains Muscles of Back and Takes an Enforced Vacation.

Suffering pain for the past three days as the result of straining the muscles of his back, and also from nervous trouble, Commissioner of Public Health and Safety Fred C. Turner is ill and confined to his home today. With Chief of Police Adelbert Wilson also on the sick list and on leave of absence, Mayor Frank K. Mott as general head of the city's affairs and Acting Chief of Police Peter J. Peterson are handling the affairs of the department.

Turner has been troubled for several months with nervousness and some time ago was forced to take a vacation during which he visited Oregon in the hope of freeing himself from the worries of his office. He returned feeling better, but the recent illness of Chief Chief Wilson has added to his responsibilities and cares, and he has remained at his work at the city hall with a visible effort.

Some days ago Commissioner Turner struck the muscle of his back. This has been causing him pain and yesterday he complained at the council of his trouble. He was not able to come to work today, and his place at council board was vacant.

It is thought that Turner's condition is not serious. For the present Mayor Mott will have charge of the department which demands urgent attention.

COUNIL AND GAS COMPANY AGREE

City Officials Object to Consumers Paying Rates Based on Whole Investment.

Objection was raised by Mayor Frank K. Mott and members of the city council to the plan of charging the consumers of gas in the city of Oakland with the whole investment for the Oakland gas plant of the Pacific Gas, Light and Heat Company, when part of this plant is of service to the bargain and State Chairman Jaramillo was notified. Paranjani, together with Superior Court Clerk Jose D. Sena and Mounted Police, S. S. Sena, who made the arrests, were in an adjoining room at the hotel and claim they saw Attorney Baca count out the money to the accused men.

PROTEST IS FILED.

The communication from George Gelder, the committee on elections and opposing also the holding of the election in churches was as follows:

"Upon reading the daily papers I observed that your honorable body might have the charter amendment election and the council election on the same day and also have the same election officers or different ones and in turn have different ballots.

"Upon what of the proponents of the charter amendment do you wish to seriously object to the procedure. While it might be legal in every way, yet we feel that there is the moral law of law involved which is paramount. We are lead to believe that churches have no right to hold the charter amendment election. In support of our objections we wish to point out the following facts and in so doing we ask that every one of the council consider them from the viewpoint of the practical results."

"First: We feel that churches should not be used for the sealed package amendment, which amendment aims to amend the constitution.

Now if the church is in fact silent influence towards opposing this amendment. Not because this makes it right or better or that they practice what they preach, but nevertheless there is no question that the church does not have much weight and which is always doing politics and politics cannot be done within 100 feet of the polls, the church is not the right place to hold an election. It is right and should be racing doing politics. Then another thing, there are many voters who will be deterred from going to a church to vote, just on general principles. For instance, one of our denominations would not want to go into another church even to vote, and there a voter would be debarred. Besides others would not go for even other reasons."

"Another thing, it is a mockery upon religion and the church to use it for political purposes and to get the people to do what the respective minister would or should most strenuously oppose.

"In making proper surroundings for the women voters, I think that whoever suggested that a church is good to poll, may any more than a tent or a store, is in error, for the church has existed for centuries and still we are hoping to be saved."

FIGHT ON ABOUT RECALL AND LIQUOR ELECTIONS

Objection Made to Having the Two Berkeley Issues Submitted on the Same Day

BERKELEY, March 19.—The fight to secure the holding of the recall and liquor elections on the same day passed its preliminary skirmish with the presentation of a petition from the citizens of the city council this morning, and will be finally waged at a special meeting of the council tomorrow. The petition for simultaneous elections was presented by Dr. E. B. Nichols and George Gelder, of 25 business men. The other was presented by George Gelder, who has been instrumental in the campaign for the sealed package.

LIQUOR AMENDMENTS.

The council definitely decided to hold the liquor amendment election on April 27. At that time the council agreed that a vote should be taken on four proposed amendments to the charter, as follows:

Amendment 1—Licensing various businesses in Berkeley, including that of selling liquor, beer, wine, etc.

Amendment 2—Fixing salaries of all officers and providing for the payment of salaries to school directors, over which there has been much confusion, out of the general fund of the city.

Amendment 3—Facilitating street opening.

Amendment 4—Increasing the tax rate maximum for buildings by $100 per $1,000 in value, and increasing the $100 to be allowed to the Board of Education for the use of the schools.

City Attorney Staats called attention to the fact that registration for the amendment election would be open for one week longer, or until March 27. Voters registered for the last election for governor or registered since will be entitled to vote.

QUESTION OF JOINT ELECTION.

The question of holding the amendment and recall election on the same day was referred to the council in a petition presented by El B. Nichols. This was as follows with its signatures:

"To the Mayor and Council of Berkeley, the undersigned business men of Berkeley, hereby respectfully request your honorable body that, in the interests of economy, both the impending charter and school elections be held at the same time. Taking into consideration the expense of holding two elections, the measure seems at hand to supply them, we believe that this saving on your part will be duly appreciated and heartily endorsed by every Berkeley taxpayer."

This petition was signed by the following: W. P. Donnelly, W. P. Dow, W. B. Knapp, Noah W. Gray, L. H. Larsen, Martin Samson, Robert Greg, H. C. Zehner, H. A. Johnston, W. Morish, L. A. ## A Proof of Oakland's Prosperity.

The vast throng (exceeding 100,000) that attended the opening reception of the new store of the H. C. Capwell Company demonstrated several things of interest to this community. For one thing, it was an impressive proof of the rapid growth of population on this side of the bay. For another, it showed how popular Oakland is as a shopping center. Lastly, it was convincing evidence of the readiness of the people of Oakland, Berkeley and Alameda to respond to commercial enterprise—proof that there is a large and genuine demand here for shopping facilities of the highest class. The Capwell store would do honor to New York or Chicago, a fact that the Oakland public appreciates; but the point we desire to make is that the immense crowd which graced the opening reception justified the sagacity and courage of the men who had the nerve to establish in this city a huge department store complete in every detail and perfectly arranged to convenience shoppers. In the aggregate this establishment represents an enormous investment. The cost of the lot, building and stock will run well above a million, and that means something. It is an imposing testimony to what can be accomplished in Oakland by enterprise, business sagacity and liberal advertising. The Capwell Company has made no mistake, but on the contrary has taught the community a salutary lesson in self-confidence.

The wool growers, vine growers and sugar beet growers of California will doubtless be rejoiced to find Congressman William Kent slated as one of the Roosevelt delegates at large to the Republican national convention. Every time an opportunity has presented itself, Mr. Kent has voted to deprive California producers of the tariff protection they now enjoy. He also favored the bill to bar California wines out of territory where local prohibition laws prevail. One of Kent's running mates is Francis J. Heney, who claimed to be a Democrat up to 1910, and who has made it his business for several years to defame the people of this State. The other two slated delegates are Governor Johnson and Chester H. Rowell, who organized the La Follette League of California last January, was elected its president, and in obedience to a telegram sent by Governor Johnson abandoned La Follette for Roosevelt. Not long ago Kent was calling Roosevelt a monumental liar and now he is slated as a Roosevelt delegate. He was probably selected to be the angel of the outfit.

Gavin McNab has stirred up a little storm among the lawyers by his sarcastic reference to the methods of the legal fraternity. One of his critics makes the crushing retort that McNab is no lawyer. Doubtless Gavin will admit that he is not the kind of a lawyer he described.

The invasion of Piedmont by the apartment house is another evidence of the rapid growth of population on this side of the bay. There is plenty of room for apartment houses elsewhere, but Piedmont offers so many attractions as a place of residence for people who desire to live in modest comfort amid ideal surroundings that the apartment house was sure to come. However, the apartment house will not lower the social standards of the place nor detract from its scenic charms.

Champ Clark's apotheosis of the country editor is being used with great effect as a campaign document. It is almost as good as Senator Vest's eulogy of the dog, though much longer; but it is a deserved tribute to a class that may be described as the yeomanry of the editorial profession. Here's to our friend, the country editor! Here's to his good health, his family's good health and his wife's family's good health—may they all live long and prosper, and never fail to get their quota of tickets when the circus comes to town!

Some iconoclast has discovered that the Ozark "houn' dawg" song, so popular with Champ Clark's Missouri supporters, is an old German folk song, the words being translated into the local argot of Southwest Missouri. Long ago some inquisitive busybody discovered that the air of "The Star Spangled Banner" was taken from an old German drinking song, "Anatolian Heaven." "America," as everybody knows, is sung to the air of "God Save the King," but now we are told that it, too, is the tune of an old Swabian festal song. But it is far cry from the ragtime of the "houn' dawg" song to German music. It is not unlikely that some amateur antiquarian will shortly discover that the "Red Rose Rag" is a classic air of the Fatherland.

The Return From Elba a Farce.

Colonel Roosevelt had better be getting a move on. Taft continues to pick up delegation after delegation at a rapid rate, while the Colonel is talking about going on the stump and receiving tips from Gifford Pinchot and George W. Perkins. According to Medill McCormick, Roosevelt sentiment is sweeping the country like a prairie fire, but when you come to look it up it is always in the next county or the next State. The point is that Taft is getting practically all the delegates.

Florida, Alabama, Virginia and Tennessee have elected solid Taft delegations, and it is certain that Georgia will give the President twenty-two more. A majority of the Iowa delegation will be for Taft, and so will be seven of the eight delegates from New Mexico. Two Taft men are already elected in Wisconsin, and Minnesota promises to line up the same way. To date the President has 137 delegates—about 25 per cent of the number necessary to nominate. What has Roosevelt to show on his side? Twelve votes from Oklahoma, two from Missouri and one from New Mexico.

All the great Taft strongholds—New York, New England, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Illinois, Indiana and Kentucky—are yet to be heard from. When they wheel into line the scattered Roosevelt following will be so completely overwhelmed that a respectable showing will be impossible. By this time the Colonel must see that his chance is hopeless, and that the best he can do will be to get enough delegates to save his candidacy from ridicule as well as failure.

Roosevelt will make his best showing in the States west of the Missouri river, and in Texas, where Taft has been betrayed by his own appointees; yet on his chosen ground Roosevelt will be sharply challenged by the President. Taft will carry California, Utah, Colorado and Idaho and get more than half of the Nebraska delegation. It is daily becoming more apparent that Roosevelt cannot win, and the average man is indisposed to join a routed and hopeless army. There will be no Waterloo. The Exile from Elba will never muster enough of a force to fight a real battle. It is all over now—but the shouting.

WHO DOES THE BLACKGUARDING

From the Sacramento Union. The New York Globe, which is inclined to favor, the nomination of Roosevelt, calls upon President Taft to stop the "blackguarding" of the former occupant of the White House. We quote:

It is high time for the president, if he has regard for his own dignity and a desire to win approval for his administration, to find a way to rebuke those who have no higher conception of politics at the present juncture than to blackguard Roosevelt.

We read the above just after having opened five letters which reached us from the National Roosevelt headquarters, 1220 E street, Northwest Washington, D. C., yesterday. The letters came in one mail and as many have been coming for several days.

With the number of the letters we are not concerned except in that it shows an enormous expenditure for postage and is convincing evidence of a bottomless sack to back up the third-term intriguing of Roosevelt; it is of their contents that we would speak with the request that the reader bear in mind the protest of the New York Globe against the "blackguarding" of Roosevelt.

The first letter opened contained the impudent question, "If the 'prosecutions' of the trusts under the present Sherman law are 'dissolving' the trusts, why are the trusts supporting Mr. Taft for second term?"

That question, mind you, from the Roosevelt headquarters maintained by the harvester trust and other special interests, represented by George W. Perkins.

But to the second letter, I asked the press of the country to publish this statement: "Taft failed to carry out those progressive Roosevelt policies to which he was pledged." Then it called up the old Pinchot-Ballinger controversy and viciously slurred the President.

We then took up the third letter to find that it contained the "information" that the Republicans of the nation were clamoring for Roosevelt to rebuke the present administration.

The fourth directly charged Taft with clubbing United States marshals into his flight and making them work for his renomination. The fifth accused the backers of the President of forging a telegram purported to have been sent by Senator Dixie to Colonel Roosevelt.

That was the substance of one day's mail from the national Roosevelt headquarters, and we expect more of the same kind of stuff today.

Blackguarding Roosevelt, does one of Roosevelt's newspaper spokesmen chide? Well, it strikes us that about the most contemptible blackguarding ever resorted to in a Presidential campaign is that directed by the Roosevelt bureau and financed by Perkins of the Steel Trust.

There seems to be no miserable trick to which the friends of the colonel will not stoop in their desperate attempt to excuse his perfidy and discredit President Taft.

That question, mind you, from the Roosevelt headquarters maintained by

Twenty Years Ago Today

THE CURB grade for Athol avenue between Lake Shore avenue and Peralta Heights has been established by a resolution adopted by the city council and work on the paving of the street will begin at once. East Twenty-third is also to be repaired as soon as possible, and several new blocks of pavement laid in the east end of the city.

The Wagner private car passed through Oakland en route to Monterey, where the meeting of the general ticket and passenger agents of the United States will be held. Among those in the car were A. J. Smith and daughter of Cleveland, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. George King, Saginaw, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. L. Lockwood, Grand Rapids; Theodore Lee and Miss Lee of St. Paul.

The Oakland Board of Trade last night considered the bond proposition. A committee to report on the matter at another meeting consists of S. V. Bowie and William Moller. They will probably endorse the plan, as the majority of the board is in favor.

The annual meeting of the Southern Pacific company was held today. It is understood that the Searies stock was voted with Collis P. Huntington. No injury was done the Stanford interests, despite the rumors in the bay cities.

The Southern Pacific has changed the times of two important trains going out from Oakland pier. The Los Angeles Flyer will change time with the Overland, the latter going out at 9:30 instead of 6:30. This will make the trip to New Orleans via El Paso, ten hours shorter, according to the railroad men.

The Sunset Telephone and Telegraph franchise matter came before the city council last night. One of the provisions of the franchise is that wires must be placed underground in the business section of the city. The committee on ordinance and judiciary will first consider the matter before any action can be taken.

NERVE AND AVIATION

The other day a youth undertook a flight in an aeroplane across one of the Great Lakes. He had made the flight from the United States to Canada, and he was trying to complete the round trip when his motor stopped. The machine volplaned part of the distance to the surface of the lake; and then then it "buckled," and dropped like a stone. The aviator lay unconscious for a time. Then he got up and walked 10 miles across the ice toward his native shore. A party of skaters found him as he reached land, and his troubles were over for the time being.

Such are the brief and simple annals in the history of aviation its beginnings. A huge could have taken such a fall, had the acrobatic been in existence in his day, and have made a terribly fatal chapter for the mystification of the reading world. But such mishaps have become almost commonplace among the men who are trying to conquer the air.

It does not seem surprising that in moments of greatest danger there are always men who do the right thing, as well as men who become paralyzed and panic-stricken.—St. Louis Times.

It begins to be apparent that the flying machine will teach us one lesson, if not many: namely, that a larger number of men have got a larger amount of "nerve" than the world ever before suspected.

Men go into a lion's den because they have learned that there is little danger in such a practice, when the requisite amount of firmness is practiced.

USED SNOWBALLS FOR POKER CHIPS

The Passengers on Snowbound
Train Go Through Unique Experiences.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., March 19.—Snowballs for poker chips, bed sheets for towels, vaudeville in the dining car and only two light meals a day, were some of the things experienced by nearly two hundred sleeping passengers of a Union Pacific train that was stalled at Oakley, Kan., for more than a week. The train reached Kansas City late yesterday after having been on the road from Denver since Saturday, March 8.

"The first few days were spent cheerfully, joking about our predicament," said one of the arrivals today, "but the situation was approaching desperation along toward the last. Anxiety and nervous strain made the passengers sulky. Food became scarce, and the salver-supper idea, short though the cars became cold. Water, too, was scarce, and we depended largely on melted snow. Finally sanitary conditions became almost intolerable."

"A theatrical company among the passengers gave several performances that helped relieve the monotony."

ILLINOIS MAN TO BE REAL "MAID-OF-HONOR"

HINSDALE, Ill., March 19.—An unusual wedding ceremony will be celebrated here this evening when Richard Gardner Root will act as "maid of honor."

Root will be the sole attendant of his sister, Miss Helen C. Root, at her marriage to James Barbilla Moore of Denver.

"I suppose I will be called 'maid of honor,'" said Root last night, "although I would prefer to be known as master of ceremonies or better still, master of honor."

MAY TAKE A SHOT AT COUNTRY'S PISTOL LAWS

Official of Revolver Association
Condemns Confusing Measures.

CAN'T CARRY WEAPONS TO SHOOTING RANGE

Experimental Secret Weapons
Legislation Criticised by J. B. Crabtree.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., March 19.—The United States Revolver Association, which provides the American teams in international revolver championship matches and which is now getting together a team to represent the United States in the Olympic contests next summer, has decided to take hand in the revolver law legislation that is going on pretty much all over the country.

This announcement was made here by J. B. Crabtree, secretary-treasurer of the association. According to Crabtree, the decision of the Revolver Association was made when it found that its efforts were hampered by revolver legislation to such an extent that in many cases its members, consisting of nearly all the crack shots in the country, were unable lawfully to carry their pistols between their homes and their revolver ranges. When interviewed, Secretary Crabtree said:

"Things have come to a pretty pass where law-abiding citizens who are experts in the handling of firearms may not lawfully carry a target pistol from their homes to a shooting range, all because of a handful of crooks which the police are unable to handle."

This feature, however, is merely what originally suggested our action. The danger lies in the existing secret-weapons legislation, which is taking place pretty much all over the country. Many states, like Massachusetts, learned in time what a fine New York state made by legislating, so that it has become almost impossible for the law-abiding citizen to buy arms for legitimate home protection. Other states are enacting other experimental laws along different lines. The result is a mass of conflicting laws so absurd that even express messengers, allowed to wear firearms in one state, are obliged to take these off and lock them up in closets as they cross the line into an adjoining state.

BULLET-PROOF LAW.

"For these reasons we have decided, through our 1500 members scattered throughout the country, to put a bullet-proof revolver law upon the statutes of every state."

Experience in New York has shown that what we need to hold down the crook is a double-barreled revolver law, one that not only permits the legitimate self-protection of the law-abiding citizen, but also charges with a grape and canister punishment for the crook found with concealed weapons.

"First of all, make it mandatory that punishment is inflicted for violation of your revolver law. Then give us a law that provides that no man ever convicted of theft, burglary, or other crime of violence, may carry a firearm or any other concealed weapon upon pain of a ten-year state's prison sentence. Put that law on your statutes, and the crook who arms himself, if caught, automatically sentences himself."

"For the law-abiding under the law easy. Leave the responsible citizen unrestricted to procure weapons for house protection or to arm himself when necessary. Compel him to register his name and address and the number of his revolver when he buys, and compel him to notify the police if for any reason he transfers his weapon to another person. If he wants to carry an arm, compel him to obtain a license."

"Restrict him in any reasonable way you like, but don't take away the one weapon which means life to him."

CORN STANDARDS TO BE ADOPTED

Government Gathers Data to Apply to Grain Raised in United States.

WASHINGTON, March 19.—Sufficient facts for establishing government standards of corn have been gathered by the Department of Agriculture, Dr. B. T. Galloway, chief of the bureau of plant industry, said today. It probably will be a year, however, before the standards are applied. Corn growers and handlers from all over the country will be called together next fall to talk the matter over with the government experts before the date is fixed and final standards made for putting the corn standards into operation.

The office of grain standardization has spent five years in working on the problem.

"In the commercial grading of corn, the factors of moisture and soundness are the two most important," said Dr. J. W. Dusal, in charge of the grain standardization work, today. A moisture content of 12 per cent has been recommended as a basis from which corn yields and values should be calculated. As to soundness, corn showing an acidity of more than thirty will be considered bad."

AGED PIONEER PASSES AWAY.

SANTA CLARA, March 19.—Samuel Morrison, a widely known resident of this place, died very suddenly at his home here yesterday. Heart failure is believed to be the cause of his death. She was a native of Massachusetts and was in her eighty-seventh year. She has resided in this vicinity since 1851.

REPELS ATTACK OF DEATH.

DENIES BREAKING OF ENGAGEMENT

Mrs. Kathryn Henry Says All is Well Between Her and S. Joyner.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 19.—Whispering among the social set that the engagement of the handsome Mrs. Kathryn Henry of San Francisco and Sterling Joyner of New York had been broken were duted last night by the bride-elect, who attributed them to irresponsible gossip.

The engagement of Mrs. Henry and Joyner attracted much attention among the smart set when it was announced last January at a dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Martin Mann at their home in Washington street. Mrs. Henry was present at the dinner, the guests at which included some of the most prominent persons in the city's social register.

Joyner is a member of the New York joint legislative committee that was here two months ago to look over the site for the Panama-Pacific Exposition. He is an architect and engineer and was a protege of Cecil Rhodes, when the British empire builder was the head of the "Cape to Cape" enterprise in South Africa. For his services in South Africa, Joyner was decorated by Queen Victoria. He was born in Savannah and is descended from an old Georgia family.

DENIED ENGAGEMENT.

Interest in the announcement of the engagement of Joyner and Mrs. Henry heightened by the fact that some of the most prominent men on the Pacific coast had formerly been mentioned in her train sources. In April of last year, Mrs. Henry had to deny that she was engaged to Harry Frank Unger, John W. Chapman or Harry McMillan. Chapman is a wealthy clubman, Unger is a playwright and McMillan, one time Nevada mining magnate, was a reputed rival for the hand of Edna Goodrich before she married Nat Goodwin.

In denying that she was engaged to marry any of these men, Mrs. Henry explained that she was not contemplating marriage at all, but was planning to go to London for the coronation as the guest of the Princess Kawananakorn.

Mrs. Henry, when seen at her home, 1123 Van Ness avenue, last night, said:

"It is not true that my engagement with Mr. Joyner has been broken, and I am unable to understand how such a report should have gained currency. I received two letters today from Mr. Joyner, who is just recovering from an illness at Lakewood, N. J. He is coming to the Pacific coast presently. No date has yet set for our marriage, but it will probably take place shortly after his arrival here. The illness of Mr. Joyner has not been serious. If it had been, I would have been with him in the East."

MISS MARY DEANE, SCHOOL DIRECTOR, ILL.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 19.—Miss Mary Deane, a member of the board of education, is confined to her apartments in the Hotel Victoria, Bush and Stockton streets, with an attack of pneumonia, which she contracted more than a week ago while attending to her duties as commissioner.

The critical stage of Miss Deane's illness has been passed and she is believed to be on the way to a speedy recovery.

Miss Deane was appointed to the board of education by Mayor James Ralph almost immediately after his inauguration. She is a sister-in-law of M. De Young and was a teacher for many years.

CONDEMNATION SUIT IS ORDERED

Board Orders Papers Prepared in First Case to Secure School Lands.

Preparation of legal papers for the filing of the first of ten or dozen condemnation suits to obtain sites under the recent bond issue was commenced this morning by the city attorney's office, and will probably be finished tomorrow in the Superior Court. The first suit to be instituted is against Sarah Jane Fox for 17.6 acres of land for the Lockheed school. The appraised valuation of the land was set at $35,200.

The board of education tried to obtain the land for the sum fixed by the appraisers, but the owner would not accept this, demanding about $50,000 for it. After attempting in vain to reach an agreement, the board has decided to commence condemnation proceedings, and the normal Superintendent of Schools J. M. McDonald placed on the hands of Charles Bearisler, assistant city attorney, the details necessary to the drawing up of the papers for filing suit.

The site is situated south of the Lockheed school on the County road, and Damon avenue.

ARIZONA TO VOTE ON SUFFRAGE BILL

State Senator Hughes Will Introduce Measure at Phoenix.

PHOENIX, March 19.—State Senator John T. Hughes announced today that he would introduce in the Senate tomorrow a bill providing that an equal suffrage amendment to the constitution be submitted to the people at the general election next November. The sentiment of the Senate is believed to be favorable to woman suffrage, but more or less powerful opposition is expected to develop in the House. Prominent women from all parts of the state are assembling here to work in behalf of the bill.

THE FIRST AND THE LATEST ADVERTISEMENT.

Thirty-seven years ago last December, The Nation, of New York, published a full-page advertisement of "The Type-Writer."

I have copied the word just as the advertisement reproduced it, hyphen, capital "W." and all, and quoted at that.

That was about the first serious advertisement ever issued of the great line of writing machines now known as Remington Typewriters.

Let us see how it looks.

In the first place, there was a big picture—an old-fashioned wood cut of what some of us will remember as the Number One Remington.

And there is a sure enough family likeness to the reigning King Remington XI.

But what do they say about it?

In the first place, "It is the size of a sewing machine."

How little the writer knew how many women would be emancipated from the slavery of the sewing machine by the Remington and its brothers!

Then—"It is an ornament to a sitting room." Shades of the immortal Mercury, what an altogether placid view of the subject that was!

Can anyone imagine a Remington of today being content to be an ornament of a sitting room, or even of an office!

Again, it pleads with "Charitable persons interested in the subject of work for women" to invest in these machines and set women up in business as copyists and correspondents.

I do not know how many charitable persons were won by this plaintive appeal, but I do know that vigorous women soon heard of the Remington and its open door, to profitable work and independence, and without the aid of charity, found a way to start in business.

How the wheels have gone round since that advertisement was written!

But now a contrast, as sharp a contrast as one can imagine.

I saw an advertisement the other day of the present Remington, one of the latest advertisements of that machine.

All the explanations and descriptions and appeals were gone.

Instead, a great fact stared the reader in the face.

"A Machine a Minute."

And then this record was given to the public,—

"During the past week the Remington has booked orders for more than a machine a minute for every working hour."

A few years ago, if they sold sixty machines a month, they thought they were doing well.

What a contrast! What a growth! And how the law of compensation works out. The Remington itself is the cause of universal business enlargement, and now the effect of that expansion comes back upon it in an almost impossible demand.

T. ROOSEVELT MAKES REPLY

Issues Statement Following President Taft's Speech at Boston.

NEW YORK, March 19.—Theodore Roosevelt issued a statement in which he discussed President Taft's speech in Boston yesterday.

"I am exceedingly pleased that the president has made a preferential primary and if his campaign manager sincerely will back him in the position he will be able at once to get the presidential preferential primary in Michigan, Illinois, Maryland, the District of Columbia and New York," said Mr. Roosevelt.

"President Taft is reported as saying "that the voluntary primary power, as he calls it, the soap box power, that is a method adopted by the people as the only way in which to express their wishes when their legislatures take them any other opportunity to do so, is worse than nothing." But the president continued to say that he favored a preferential primary for the presidency.

"On the fifth of this month Mat thias of Boston, acting on behalf of the Massachusetts progressive Repub licans who are making a de perate fight for the passage of the presidential preference primary bill, wired the president at the White House asking him for his moral sup port in securing the passage of the Massachusetts bill. Mr. Hale re ferred specially to the fact that the president's adherents in Massa cussetts were using every means to de feat the passage of the bill.

NO SUPPORT GIVEN.

"On the sixth of March the presi dent's secretary, Mr. Hilles, wrote

Mr. Hale a brief note saying that his party had referred to him by direc tion of Mr. Taft, referred to his campaign manager, Congressman

McKinley, who at the time was doing all he could to defeat a similar meas ure in Illinois. Nothing further was heard from the president or his cam paign manager, Mr. McKinley by Mr.

Mr. Hale, or by any one else in Mass achusetts as far as I know and no moral aid, comfort or support was given by the president or his cam paign manager to those in Massachusetts who were making a most determined fight to overcome the efforts of the president's supporters in the state to defeat the bill.

"However, public opinion was aroused and the bill went through, and I am exceedingly glad that the president—now nearly a week after the bill has become a law—should say as he does that he favors it and will support it.

"I earnestly hope the president and his supporters in other states will support such legislation before it passes and not after it passes."

OF FIRST DISCOURSEEloquent Sermon and Appeal
Delivered at Last Evening's Meeting.

A mission for Catholic men of Oakland, conducted by the Paulist Fathers of New York, Rev. Thomas Burke, C. S. P., and Rev. James Gillis, C. S. P., at St. Mary's Church, Seventh and Jefferson streets, commenced last evening. About 700 men were present to hear the opening sermon, which was preached by Father Gillis. "The Wages of Sin" was the topic of the sermon, and Father's discourse, and, among other things, he said: "My text tonight is taken from the Epistles of St. Paul to the Romans."

"The wages of sin is death."

"This is a sermon that is being preached forever, and yet headed almost never. The sermon is spoken by the priest, the tongue of nature, and by the mouth of man. The wages of sin is death, among all people in the universe, nature speaks to all nations that God is preaching a sermon to you and yet will find it not needed. This is God's sermon. To preach to mankind is a sermon of enlightenment, and his life depends upon it. God is human. His sermon is in the high heavens. Day after day, from the rising of the sun to the setting down, they follow the pathway of life. In the pathway of death, this is its refrain. There is in fact a proof that God is no stranger to mankind. Hence it is in order to demand the bounds of mankind that this sermon is preached, and yet it is a sermon that we can never hear.

"For fear we may hear the voice of God, we do not let even the priest preach a sermon is a sermon of death and death comes after life, and life comes after death. Life is a huge pendulum in the sight of mankind, swinging a message of death. The world, the church, always warns mankind of life and death. We will not understand; we make our minds blind and no man is so blind that he cannot see. We make ourselves deaf, and no one is so deaf that he cannot hear.

PREACHED INSTANTLY.

"Now here is a lesson preached constantly, and those falling by the roadside heed it not. God has taken a huge parapet of the earth. The clouds, red, yellow, green, blue, all life, all colors, minutes afterward they are smeared, they are turned to black—that black is death. The beasts of the field drop in their tracks and give up life. In our life, day after day, we are born and die, lying on their death beds, fighting, battling for life, and lying back give up life to be won by death. We are today face to face with death, and yet I say, we will not understand. We will not listen to God. We do not want to listen to death; we do not want to die.

"The jester's business is making people laugh. The day shall come when you will hear the jester play the voice of God. And do you think that things will then give you happiness and peace?

"Death has no respect for persons or places. In this life man may go as far as he can and yet not attain the true happiness of life. Follow the jester of the world. Eat, drink and be merry, and so give himself up to the pleasures of life without a thought of death. He urged, Eat, drink, and be merry, for tomorrow we die. Do you know that it may be the next day you may go down into the grave?" There is a voice always whispering, "death, death." To-day it is my turn and you are ready. The time may come, and it may come very quickly. Are you ready? If you are not ready for a short life, you need not fear death. If you are in sin, you are in

92 YEARS OLD WRITES

DR. RADWAY & CO.

Dear Sirs: I have been thinking for a long time to write you, but have put it off till now. Well, for the last three years we have had it to bear that we had no Radway's, and I have had it to bear that for eight days and nights I could not get any clothes off. I used to put on various plasters and mustard plasters, and tried most everything. Well, I had some Radway's Ready Relief in the house that I had used for twenty years for Rheumatism. I thought I would try that. I gave my back and hip and sides a good rubbing, and to my surprise, in a short time the pain was all gone. And now I put it on every four days. Radway's Ready Relief ought to be in every house in the land. No one in this world knows but God and myself the misery I was in till I used Radway's Relief. I suffered every day for death, and often thought I had better destroy myself. And this Sunday last the 5th of April, I was 92 years old, born on a farm. No wife (lost two good ones), no children—if I had one then I would like to live 1000 years.

I thought it was my duty to let you know what your medicine has done for an old man. I use one 50-cent bottle about every six weeks. Yours respectfully, (Signed) JACOB ABLE,

CARMEL SCHOOLMA'M DISAPPEARS AT 2 O'CLOCK IN MORNING

The Hills Searched in Vain for Trace of Miss Helen Vestal and Suicide Is Feared.

CARMEL. March 19.—Miss Helen Vestal, principal of the Carmel district school and daughter of D. C. Vestal of San Jose, disappeared from her cottage at 2 o'clock yesterday morning and no trace of her has since been found. The young woman was lightly clad when she left her apartments.

The glades and hills of Carmel have been searched for the teacher and a patrol is being kept on the beach to watch the waves.

Miss Vestal lived in a cottage with Miss Gladys Brock. The two girls visited Sunday evening at the home of a friend and after returning home they sat up in conversation until midnight. The school teacher seemed in the best of spirits.

Miss Brock was roused from sleep about 2 o'clock this morning by the closing of a door, but she thought nothing of the sound. When she awoke at her usual hour for arising she went to Miss Vestal's room and found that her friend had gone.

From the appearance of Miss Vestal's apartment, it would seem that she dressed in haste. She used but few hairpins in dressing her hair and took neither hat nor coat. A sweater vest was the only article missing. On a dresser were Miss Vestal's glasses, which she usually wore.

Miss Vestal was believed to be dissatisfied with life at Carmel, but she gave no intimation that she contemplated suicide. It is not known that she had a love affair.

The school teacher is 22 years old, had golden hair, a slight figure and is 5 feet 6 inches tall. She is a graduate of the San Jose normal school.

Here Is Latest

CHICAGO. March 19.—Given time and opportunity, the dressmakers of this country will eventually lure the women back to the immense hoop skirts of ante-bellum days. The true hobble is hopelessly doomed, and in its place this season comes the panier gown. Three thousand dressmakers from all parts of the United States, now assembled here, are enthusiastic over the panier, which is admitted to be the forerunner of hoop skirts. In two years at the latest, they predict wide hoop skirts will be the rage in millions, the most startling novelty. Quotation will be tiny, electric lights in the hair. These are operated by "very small, flat storage batteries worn in the corsage, and highly decorative in itself because of its artistic design and jeweled effect. The light bulbs represent various tinted flowers and are very fetching when arranged in the coiffure. Another pattern carries a storage battery in the crown of the hat and is intended for evening wear exclusively where hats are not removed.

LA PALOMA ASSEMBLY.

La Paloma Assembly will hold its next dance on Friday evening, March 22, at Maple Hall. Many cards have been sent out by the club to its members. The color scheme will be white and green, and a most enjoyable evening is anticipated.

The committee of arrangements consists of Leroy B. Hackett, Herbert Stout, Elwood Sunbler, Ernest Knox, Charles Hanson, Alvin Schramm and Guy Nutting.

The following are some who will be present: Miss Hollibaugh, Miss Olive Farmer, Miss Olivia Rose, Miss Ruth McKenzie, Miss Marie Wilcox, Miss Emma Wilcox, Miss Eddie Smith, Miss Agnes Donovan, the Misses McCarthy, Misses Connor, Eddie Hand, Arthur Berggren, Floyd Gray, Frank Bachman, Clifford Meekle, E. Haunschild, Seaver Hamilton and George Kyro.

"Pearl" Is Named

NEW YORK. March 19.—Mrs. Roberta Menges Corwin Hill, former "Pearl of Sheephead Bay," was named in another divorce yesterday. Mrs. Josephine Park Teare sued for absolute divorce from Conway Teare, who played one of the leading roles with Louie Mann in "Elevating a Husband."

Mrs. Hill and Teare disappeared from New York at the same time after a period of weeks in which she attended every performance of the play, and Teare received many love notes.

Mrs. Teare charged that her husband and Mrs. Hill were known at the King Edward Hotel, where they registered on March 4 as Mr. and Mrs. Charles Turner. She says that next morning she followed Teare and Mrs. Hill to the Grand Central station and that two days later the couple sailed for Italy on the steamship America.

The last time Roberta Hill was named in a divorce suit was when the now Mrs. John Jacob Astor brought proceedings.

Women Reunited

FRESNO. March 19.—There was a joyful reunion at the County Almudine yesterday when Mrs. Lucy Sturgeon, an aged inmate, beheld her daughter, Mrs. Sarah Cornwall of Portland, Or., whom she had not seen for 26 years, and whom she had believed dead for 21 years. Mrs. Cornwall has also believed her mother dead for 21 years, and the meeting was brought about by the merciful chance.

The daughter, who had located in Oregon, read that her mother had been burned to death in a fire that destroyed her home in Stockton, Cal. Soon after Mrs. Sturgeon received news that her daughter had been killed in a runaway accident. Coming to Stockton a few days ago the daughter learned that her mother was alive, and the reunion followed.

When she backed up her attack with a big lantern and planted on his head, he became sore and sued for divorce. Acht got his interlocutory decree today. He and Mary had been married since 1893 and have two grown daughters.

Pearls the Most Becoming Jewel

By LILLIAN RUSSELL

(Copyright, 1912, Lillian Russell)

NTIL recently pearls have not been appreciated by American women. They are the most becoming of all the precious stones. In all of the tiaras and crown jewels of the great queens of the world pearls are absent. They are not ostentatious or glittering, and although queens are obliged to wear the more brilliant jewels at great functions, history records the fact that their favorite jewels are pearls. A queen or a peasant may wear them and they are equally becoming and enhancing on either. The women who are fortunate enough to possess beautiful ropes of pearls wear them continually in the day and keep them in cases at night. You may see lovely women, simply gowned in the morning, with their beautiful pearls gleaming mysteriously through their lace blouses. And then again you may see the same pearls worn in the evening with a decollete gown as the only ornament.

Women who dress to enhance their beauty always wear a string of pearls around their throats, even though they may not be lucky enough to possess the genuine pearls. They know the effect of pearls upon the skin of the throat and the effect of colors upon the pearls. The genuine pearls change color with the colors placed near them. When worn with a rose-colored gown they gleam with an iridescent pale pink color. When worn with blue as the predominant color they take on a blue opalescent shade. Gold color causes them to shade to a cream color and near a mass of green they look like the shade of the moon on a clear moonlight night.

A great many people believe that pearls are alive, hence the East Indian's love for them. The East Indians are a superstitious nation and "would not crush a pearl lest they lose a life in revenge." Cleopatra dissolved a pearl in wine to make a love sacrifice. But she was not a Hindu. The pictures of the potentes who took part in the last durbar, all show wonderful pearls in their turbans and on their necks. Men and women alike in India love and appreciate pearls more than any other jewel, and one rarely sees an Indian princess without a beautiful pearl-shaped pearl on her forehead. They believe that the pure white pearl, just above the eyes, accentuates the beauty of their eyes.

Li pearls are alive—they must be immune against the dangers of death by piercing or polishing. They are an everlasting reflection of refinement. And so sensitive that when worn by a woman who is ill they will fade and die. A well-known case in New York was that of a prominent wealthy beauty whose mother left her a wonderful string of large pearls with five long pearl-shaped pearls attached to them. She wore them continually, and when she finally died of tuberculosis, her pearls became chalky in appearance and could not be polished into any brightness. All expert jewelers pronounced them dead.

Healthy women wearing pearls cause them to grow in brilliancy. Some superstitious people say that "pearls bring tears." Yet I venture to say that I know many women who would cry days to get them. What is more becoming on a pretty hand than a pearl ring? A little string of pearls is flattering to a baby, larger ones to grown-ups, in proportion. Remember, there is more refinement in a pearl than in all of the diamonds minded.

SAN JUANITO. March 19.—Miss Adra Lewis, the pretty 18-year-old daughter of W. E. Lewis, was thrown from her saddle horse and seriously injured while riding along Baldwin avenue yesterday afternoon. The horse, shied at a piece of wrapping paper in the street and Miss Lewis was thrown. Her left arm was broken. She was picked up by passersby and taken to the Red Cross Hospital.

DENVER. March 19.—That a woman can keep a secret was proved to day when it became known that a strong organization called the Woman's State Suffrage Association, with a membership of 1500, has been in existence in Colorado for three years.

The existence of the organization became known through the announcement that a collection had been started among the members to help the cause of the militant suffragettes in England.

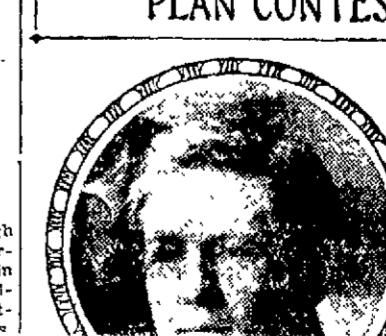

"In helping our English sisters, we do not mean to imply that we approve of 'windy mashing,'" the said Mrs. Alma Lafferty, a member of the state legislature. "Still we do not attempt to pass upon their merits to the end, for conditions are different in England from America."

Mrs. Gertrude Lee is president of the association.

HOTEL OAKLAND GIVES ITS FIRST LUNCHEON

SCENE AT LUNCHEON GIVEN TODAY AT THE HOTEL OAKLAND BY THE DIRECTORS OF THE CORPORATION, WHICH WAS ATTENDED BY REPRESENTATIVE MEN OF AFFAIRS. THE FUNCTION MARKS AN EPOCH IN THE COMMERCIAL GROWTH AND HISTORY OF THIS CITY.

COST OF STRUCTURE IS NEAR $2,000,000 MARK

Splendid Hostelry Means Much to City's Future, Say Speakers

HISTORY in Oakland was in the making today, the occasion one of the most important and far-reaching which the city has ever known. The first function, a luncheon, to be held under the roof of the magnificent new Hotel Oakland, erected at a cost of nearly $2,000,000, was the momentous event, serving to point the way to the future of that Greater Oakland toward which the city's location and destiny inevitably trend.

The far-reaching importance of the occasion filled the minds of the 150 representatives of the city and county government and of business and professional men who were gathered about the board, and colored with glowing tints the expressions of enthusiasm given. That the city and its public-spirited citizens had come to the realization of its magnificent future and that future's needs and had given their support so heartily to this undertaking of almost monumental importance were a source of satisfaction to all those present, indicating a promise of even greater things to be hoped for in the future.

"OAKLAND'S PRIDE"

"Oakland's pride" the hotel was called, and Oakland's pride the beautiful building is. Not the possession of one individual or of one group of men, but a source of civic satisfaction and hope to the entire community and to each individual member of it, was the declaration of the speakers who echoed the sentiment of the assembled guests. What the hostelry will mean for the greater development of Oakland, for its recognition abroad, and so in turn for its growth and prosperity at home was the keynote of the gathering.

The first assemblage of a pub-rson, Alice, Thirteenth and Fourteenth streets, during the morning to inspect the building. On every hand were heard expressions of enthusiasm over the plans put into reality by the architects, by the interior arrangements and by the structure as it stands practically completed.

These expressions reached the highest point when the guests assembled in the main dining room on the north of the building. There against a background of American flags and palms the long luncheon tables had been set under the direction of the Forum cafe, the whole presenting a picture suggestive of the many beautiful and elaborate functions of which this is the forerunner.

KITCHEN MADE TO ORDER.
Arriving at the hotel at 11 o'clock with a force of waiters and cooks, Gustav Mann pressed into service a steam pipe from the machinery of construction, improvised a kitchen on the spot, and by 12 o'clock had all ready for the feast. The installation of the make-shift kitchen and preparation of salads and desserts were all completed before the guests sat down, in exactly one hour's time.

ARRIVED BY BELL.
Harmon Bell acted as toastmaster of the occasion, and after the luncheon, in a few opening remarks, introduced the subject of the day:

"We all congratulate ourselves upon being present at this, the first luncheon at Hotel Oakland," he said. "I remember well when the erection of this hotel was first mentioned to F. M. Smith, a man whose large faith in Oakland have endeared him to us all, that, while he greatly favored the plan, yet to assure success he said that our bankers must stand

SPONSORS FOR THE BUILDING OF THE HOTEL. Nobly have the bankers of Oakland responded to the call and, assisted by the capitalists, press, business and professional men of Oakland, we today behold the result of their united efforts in this magnificent building, whose architecture does justice to the eye of every beholder.

"From the hotel can be viewed the waters of the bay which whisper of coming commerce, the busy streets and the beautiful foothills of Oakland. Here will be the social center of Oakland. Here will the stranger within our gates be made welcome with true California hospitality. Here the voice of the new and greater Oakland will be heard.

"Thousands could assist us in this hotel and not miss it. I have said all I can say, but now that the people see how the money has been spent and what has been done, I hope they will approve."

BRITTON MAKES SPEECH.
John A. Britton followed Fitzgerald as speaker. He said:

"When Walter Lelmer asked me to talk here I asked for a topic. Walter told me to boast, and that's all. You people in Oakland seem to be all boasting."

"I can't help looking back for a moment. I remember the first hotel in Oakland. It was at First and Broadway. Then we had another, in a public square. The people from San Francisco used to come over on Sunday."

"Then we had the old Grand Central Hotel. In that hotel a banquet was given to the captain of the first ship to enter Oakland harbor."

"We had sporadic attempts to build a hotel after that. On Adams Point, once, they thought of it. These all failed and Oakland had no hotel."

"But there came a day when big business came here. From that moment Oakland awoke, and she has been making great strides forward ever since."

"She drove the cottontails out of the hills and put homes there. But passengers are decreasing now. Why? Because there is nothing in San Francisco you can't get here."

CROWNING WORK.
"And this hotel is the crowning work of the boosters of this great city."

"This wonderful hotel will soon be filled with a gay and joyous crowd. But you must aid these bankers in finishing this work that they have started out of loyalty to this city. It will be a monument to the city."

PROMINENT LOCAL MEN SIT AT INITIAL FEAST

Harmon Bell, as Toastmaster, Gives Praise to Men Who Backed Project

Toastmaster Bell as the man who had devoted the best years of his life to the advancement of the city. Mayor Mott said:

"There is really only one speech for me to make, and that is for me to place my name on the list of stockholders if it is not already there, and if it is, to put it down again for a larger amount."

Gentlemen, we determined here a few years ago to make this a great city. Nature intended that this should be a great, thriving city. The work on this great hotel has gone hand in hand with our harbor development, with our construction of the auditorium and our highways."

"But, what is the use of all this great expenditure of money? It is because we feel that our great city offers great opportunities and that all this money is for things which we need."

"The eyes of the world are upon this section of the world, on this San Francisco bay. In a few months our great Panama Canal will be open. We who are in touch with conditions here know that the great steamship lines on the Atlantic coast are looking toward this bay as their western terminus."

"What remains for us to do is to put our shoulders to the wheel and to make this magnificent hotel the center of our great city."

WOOD SPEAKS.

James Woods, manager of the St. Francis hotel, San Francisco, was the next speaker. He said:

"Gentlemen: I am going to be brief. In this first place, I'd like to say that I am greatly pleased in being here and in seeing these present on this unique and unusual occasion. This might term the christening of an institution that is destined to make history for the city of Oakland."

"I have been in the hotel business practically all my life. It is the only business I know; more than that, it is a religion with me, and about the only religion I know. I venture to say that the public-spirited men who conceived this great enterprise and carried it to a successful conclusion did not and do not now look for big financial returns or for a reasonable return of interest. Still in the light of the commercial side of this venture, I am concerned the result unquestionably will be eventually successful."

"That is the only viewpoint, the only thought anyone connected directly or indirectly with this house should for a moment entertain. What have you here? A beautiful and growing city, a magnificent hotel unique anywhere in structure, internally or externally. Also intelligently planned, with a splendid perspective to back it up, therefore, I should say, furnish and equip your house as well as all of the rest of the work has been done there."

PRISON ESCAPE WILL BE TRIED

Charles Morley, Who Survived Battle With Posse, Faces Charge.

LINCOLN, Neb., March 19.—Charles Morley, the living member of the trio of escaped convicts who were run down yesterday after a four-day hunt, probably will be given his preliminary hearing the latter part of the week. The charge to be filed against him will be that of "conspiracy with intent to commit murder." Morley's trial will occur about April 29. The trial of Albert Prince for the murder of Deputy Warden Davis on February 11 will precede it.

Morley is in solitary cell at the penitentiary next to that occupied by Prince. He was very tired last night, although willing to talk about the break for liberty. His only regret is for the death of Roy Blunt, the young farmer who was killed.

PALMIR, Nev., March 19.—Coroner Armstrong of Sarpy county left here today for the Blunt farm to hold an inquest over the body of Roy Blunt, the young farmer who was killed in the fight between escaped convicts and officers in the northern part of the state yesterday. An effort will be made to fix responsibility for his death.

BELIEVE CONVICTS KILLED BLUNT.

LINCOLN, Neb., March 19.—Sheriff Hyers took Morley to the prison yesterday he turned the man over to the acting warden, who locked the captured outlaw in his cell. Morley was taken back over the route he traversed in his attempt to escape. He passed over the spot where he and his companions had killed Warden Dehnhart, and the usher key cage, the doors of which opened to Capt. Paul, the man who covered by the convicts' revolver, had opened them to allow their escape, passed the doors, the lock of which had been blown open by "Shorty" Gray, walked with this hotel will do more for your city and the exposition than any other one thing.

"Now, you will have to have hotels to take care of this playground of the world. You have done much about the bay, for you have in San Francisco and Oakland 1250 first-class hotel and apartment houses. But you will need them, and of the better sort, too, in the years to come."

H. C. CAPWELL.

The speech of H. C. Capwell closed the affair. He was introduced as "the live boaster on this side of the bay."

"If you ever get sick here," said Capwell, "it will probably be the dentist that does it. I seem to be the dentist."

"I am happy to follow 'the old bunch' as speaker. What is to be said about this hotel has just about been said."

"I used to live in a country where the snow fell. Sometimes someone would leave a door open, and after almost freezing, someone would, in desperation, close it. Same here. We have to finish this hotel."

"Oakland is the merry-go-round for the playground of the bay cities. They all come to the merry-go-round. That's why we need a hotel and why we have to get busy."

"So far only 128 are on the ground floor of the stockholders. It must not be closed in this way. Someone else should get in. Hotels pay, and they pay mighty well, and even in San Francisco the investors would be glad to get in."

RAILROAD FAITH.

"The Southern Pacific Company has demonstrated its faith in Oakland," Bell said, "by the electrification of its lines. As representative of the Key Route, I am glad to find that the Southern Pacific has discovered this section on this side of the bay as well as we here. We have one of those men here in the person of Vice-President McCormick, president and in charge of traffic for that railroad.

RAILROADMAN SPEAKS.

Mccormick said: "Ever since I came to Oakland in 1889 I have looked and speculated as to what this city and community would be. You here in Oakland needed a hotel as you needed nothing else in the world. You needed this hotel to care for the thousands of people who are brought by railroad people."

"You here in Oakland have great beauty like almost other places in the world. But we in California have not made the most of our opportunities by not furnishing places in which to care for the visitors."

"But with this hotel of yours here you are going to meet that want, and whether or not you build a building at the Panama-Pacific exposition, you with this hotel will do more for your city and the exposition than any other one thing."

"Now, you will have to have hotels to take care of this playground of the world. You have done much about the bay, for you have in San Francisco and Oakland 1250 first-class hotel and apartment houses. But you will need them, and of the better sort, too, in the years to come."

NEW STORE OPENING.

"Last Saturday we opened a big store. There were a hundred thousand people there. This helped clear stores and other places all around by drawing out the public."

"Business brings business. I venture to wager that if you furnish the whole 500 rooms you will fill them all."

"A dozen hotels like this would not be too many for Oakland."

"I met traveling men all the time. They complain of hotel accommodations. This shows that we need them."

ANNOUNCE SUBSCRIPTIONS.

In response to the call for additional subscriptions, made at the luncheon, the committee announced three made on the spot. These were made by three of the present stockholders, F. M. Smith, Charles Jurgens and Edison Adams. Smith, who already holds $150,000 of the stock, subscribed for $20,000. Jurgens, holding $40,000, put his name down for $4000 additional, and Edison Adams increased his former stock holdings of $30,000 by $5000.

"If this splendid hotel cannot pay," said Capwell, "I think something is wrong with Oakland. But we know nothing is the matter with Oakland."

"It is expected that several other manufacturers will be asked to join Richmond boosters were guests at the luncheon last week."

LIFE INSURANCE OR DEATH INSURANCE--Which?

People will pay large sums for life insurance, which is really death insurance; but real life insurance frequently consists in taking Eckman's Alternative. Can any "lung sick" person afford not to take the Alternative?

It is the opposite, makes life look different, brings better health with greater earning power. When persons are so much improved that they can work even before they are finally cured.

Investigate it. If you are truly minded enough to believe that there is a cure for consumption, which has not been reasonably exploited, or which is not based merely on climatic or diet restriction. See Mr. Webb's report follows:

W. E. Webb, M.D., 1000 Franklin Street, San Francisco, Calif. ARTHUR WEBB.

Further details of this case upon request. Eckman's Alternative is effective in bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever, Throat and Lung Troubles, and in upbuilding the system. It is also good for the heart and for heart-feeding drugs. For sale, The Old Drug company, and other leading drug firms. Ask for booklet of cured cases and write to Eckman Laboratory, 1000 Franklin Street, San Francisco, Calif.

EDITOR TRIBUNE: I have been very much interested in the discussions of the high schools and high school sites which have been going on in THE TRIBUNE, and, having some decided opinions of my own on the subject, would like to give you in hopes that they may prove of interest to your readers. I have taught drawing in the Oakland schools and at the University of California, and at all times have been an ardent worker and have watched the changes that have come in the management and planning of high schools.

The tendency in regard to the subjects included in the subjects suitable for young people of high school age in each high school, having two or more schools, only when necessary on account of the number of pupils or the distance from school to home, has been to believe that there is a sufficient line of division between a commercial and manual training high school and any other kind of high school to warrant separate institutions. This is true, but it must be admitted, to take a part in the great workday world, become familiar with the conditions of the community and work for the enactment of laws that will tend to the general uplift of the country.

The object of the meeting was for the purpose of establishing a civil chapter for the various clubs, considering and discussing the problems of the day, and it is expected that within a short time the new department will be installed and in perfect operation.

A general report will be submitted by Mrs. Gaultier at the next meeting, outlining the general work of the chapter for the preliminary consideration of the members.

Under the auspices of the Mothers' Club, Rev. F. L. Goodspeed of San Francisco will address the students of the school in Mowbray hall Friday, March 29, on "My Travels Through the Holy Land."

OLD ROBINSON FERRY
MINE GIVES UP GOLD

JANESTOWN, March 19.—The Melones Mining Company, which has been operating for the past twenty years at the old Robinson Ferry on low-grade mining ore, struck $4000 ore this week.

The mine adjoins the old Morgan mine at Carson Hill, from which the largest nugget in America was taken, and the probabilities are that the Melones people have struck the old Morgan vein.

The old Humboldt tunnel under the mountain near Janestown, which has been dry for many years, is getting full of water, and when it is full will be $5 to $60 in gold to the ton. Three pans yielded $12. The gold was very coarse, but remarkably clean. Over $7,000,000 was taken from this tunnel in the old days.

VALLEJO MEN SEE
RICHMOND STREETS

RICHMOND, March 19.—A delegation of officials and business men of Vallejo were visitors in Richmond yesterday. They came to inspect the local street work and learn of the methods of street improvements in vogue here.

The men who do the big work in the coming summer and autumn in Richmond are getting paid $100 per month, the unit being a rather arbitrary value based on the amount of time and the amount of study required in each subject. These units are varied, and the student receives credit for each unit, even though he may not pursue the subject conservatively in the Eastern universities. Formerly such subjects were not accepted as having any educational value, but over the years have seen some of them added to their list.

The following are the subjects on which matriculation credit to the University of California is based, taken from the 1911 register: A student desiring to enter the University must have completed fifteen hours of work, equivalent to 45 units of work, the unit being a rather arbitrary value based on the amount of time and the amount of study required in each subject. These units are varied, and the student receives credit for each unit, even though he may not pursue the subject conservatively in the Eastern universities. Formerly such subjects were not accepted as having any educational value, but over the years have seen some of them added to their list.

Subject 1 is agriculture, which is divided as follows: A, dairying, 1½ units; B, horticulture, 1½ units, C, general agriculture which includes plant food, plants, soil, seeds, joint animals and farm management, 1½ units.

Subject 2 is economics which is divided as follows: A, economic geography, 1½ units; B, commercial and industrial history, 1 units; C, bookkeeping, 1½ units; D, stenography and typewriting, 1½ units; E, domestic science, which includes cooking, hygiene, aesthetics, household decoration and furnishing, home economics, laundering and ironing, 1½ to 6 units.

Subject 21 is music which includes history of music, notation, sight reading, dictation, choral singing, harmony, composition, technique and interpretation, 3 to 9 units.

NECESSARY TRAINING. These subjects comprise the 1st which the University of California deems suitable for high school students to take and accepts as giving the necessary training to enter the university. The only difference between the two is that in our two high schools is that in the Commercial and Manual Training high school, that typewriting, stenography, domestic science, and shop work have taken the place of Latin, Greek and some of the sports which were given there.

All other subjects are duplicated. According to these entrance requirements one can enter the University in a classical course and receive credit for entrance in all the commercial and manual training subjects as already. If he also has fulfilled the requirements of the first two groups. On the other hand one can enter one of the engineering courses and receive matriculation credit in Latin and Greek and receive credit in English, 1½ to 4½ units; D—Domestic science, which includes cooking, hygiene, aesthetics, household decoration and furnishing, home economics, laundering and ironing, 1½ to 6 units.

Subject 19 is agriculture, which is divided as follows: A, dairying, 1½ units; B, horticulture, 1½ units, C, general agriculture which includes plant food, plants, soil, seeds, joint animals and farm management, 1½ units.

AVOID VIOLENCE, IS ADVICE.

ALBANY, March 19.—"Love and Cooperation" was the subject of an address at the Martin Avenue Methodist church Saturday evening by the pastor, Rev. W. E. Conner.

"Co-operation, not conflict," said Rev. Coffman, "is the condition of progress among men. Jesus told Peter to put his sword into its sheath and declared, 'All ye who are for me, let them be my sword.' Christians are called to fight ignorance and unrighteousness, but not to fight men. War between nations or between parties is always destructive. It is far better to suffer wrong than to inflict it with violence either of the flesh or spirit."

ROUTINE-DISCUSSED AT EAST END CLUB

ALAMEDA, March 19.—The East End Improvement Club held its regular meeting last night at the auditorium of the Lincoln School. In the absence of President Margarson, First Vice-President McLean occupied the chair. The club decided to change its meeting dates from the first and third Mondays to the second and fourth Fridays, owing to the conflict with so many other meetings.

C. R. Pease, newly admitted to the club, told of the work done by the improvement clubs of San Francisco immediately after the fire and earthquake. Vice-President McLean made a short address on what the East End Club had accomplished during its existence.

The subject of the widening of Encinal avenue and the coming bond election was also discussed. The club decided to appear in a body before the council.

Committee to Investigate
Civic Organizations.

PIEDMONT, March 19.—Mrs. E. Gaultier has been named a special committee by the Piedmont Mothers' Club to ascertain the aims and platforms of the several California woman's political associations, believing that with the privilege of voting women should take a more active part in the civic and political affairs of the community and ultimately organize into a civic chapter.

In her address to the club, President Mrs. E. L. Ledewig stated that it was a woman's duty, now that she has been enfranchised, to take a part in the great workday world, become familiar with the conditions of the community and work for the enactment of laws that will tend to the general uplift of the country.

The tendency in regard to the subjects included in the subjects suitable for young people of high school age in each high school, having two or more schools, only when necessary on account of the number of pupils or the distance from school to home, has been to believe that there is a sufficient line of division between a commercial and manual training high school and any other kind of high school to warrant separate institutions.

This view is quite modern and may not be accepted by all, but it is accepted by the University of California and by practically all of the Western universities and colleges.

CHANGE IN PLANS.

On looking over the entrance requirements of the various universities, one finds that some subjects, type writing and stenography, bookkeeping and domestic science are granted the same amount of credit for matriculation as are physics, chemistry, botany, zoology and mineralogy, which would require the large amount of outside study and reading as do the languages, history and mathematics. By looking back over the entrance requirements of the decade, which are published in their annual announcements and can be seen in the library of the University of California, one finds positive proof of the tendency to increase, even though not most conservative, of the Eastern universities. Formerly such subjects were not accepted as having any educational value, but over the years have seen some of them added to their list.

The following are the subjects on which matriculation credit to the University of California is based, taken from the 1911 register: A student desiring to enter the University must have completed fifteen hours of work, type writing and stenography, bookkeeping and domestic science are granted the same amount of credit for matriculation as are physics, chemistry, botany, zoology and mineralogy, which would require the large amount of outside study and reading as do the languages, history and mathematics. By looking back over the entrance requirements of the decade, which are published in their annual announcements and can be seen in the library of the University of California, one finds positive proof of the tendency to increase, even though not most conservative, of the Eastern universities. ALAMEDA, March 19.—Hamlet Circle gave a most delightful entertainment last evening at Moose hall. ## Firehorses Not Too Old to Go on Stage

Musical Comedy Is Last Resort for Worn-Out Equines.

LOS ANGELES, March 19.—A new use for old firehorses has been found by Fire Chief Ely, who has leased "Chubb" and "Aguinaldo" to a theater manager here for utilization in a firehouse scene in a musical comedy. The horses respond to their cues without fail and receive rounds of applause.

THRILLING ACTS TO BE PRODUCED AT GREAT SHRINERS' CIRCUS

INQUIRIES AFTER TRANSPORTATION MEAN PRESENCE OF CROWD

Clowns who will be made special feature of Oakland Shriners' circus.

Programs to Bear Orders' Colors and Insignia and Will Have Value as Souvenirs; Plans Well Under Way

Programs bearing the Shrine colors and the crescent moon are being prepared under the direction of the Shriners' circus program committee. The program, which will represent the highest art attained by Oakland printers, will be ready for inspection in a few days. Harry L. Boyle is president of the program committee, the other members being Wood, Hughes, E. Schopoffen and G. M. Cohn.

It is planned to make the program a beautiful souvenir which visitors at the Shriners' circus to be held on the shores of Lake Merritt during the first four days of April will be glad to keep and carry away with them. That there will be many visitors from outside town is assured, as the large number of requests for tickets and railroad rates from interior cities has induced the three railroads running into Oakland to make special rates of fare and one-third off the round trip into Oakland. The special rate will obtain only from March 31 to April 6.

The circus, as planned, will be one of the biggest festivals, fraternal or otherwise, that has ever been held in Oakland. The ideal site south of the Twelfth street has been selected. A three-ring circus will be erected, and with it a set of side shows and a grandstand overlooking the great campus upon which the Ashomes patrol and band will drill. Arrangements will be made for fireworks on the lake during a portion of the evening program.

Special features for the circus are being planned by members of the local Shrine, among these being the clown acts. The circus chartered by the Ashomes temple for the Oakland celebration is in itself one of the greatest animal shows in the world today.

Among the score of dangerous and thrilling acts included on the bill of the regular circus is the act scheduled for Herr Louis Roth, the well-known lion tamer. Among the twenty-two lions with the wild animal show is a huge king of the forest named "Nero." Herr Roth, during the stay of the Al G. Barnes company near Venice this year, has trained Nero to take a piece of raw meat from the mouth of his trainer while the two are in the cage together.

Nothing excites the carnivorous animals so greatly as the smell of raw meat, and every time Herr Roth performs this trick he takes his life in his hands.

Another feature of the act is Herr Roth's daring performance in opening the mouth of one of his lions and thrusting his head between the massive, cruel jaws of the beast. One movement of hesitation and all would be lost, as the lion could crush his master with the greatest ease.

The lion became restive one night at Spokane last fall when Herr Roth was performing this trick, and before he could free himself the lion had snapped shut his jaws, and the trainer escaped with his life and a deep and dangerous wound in his neck and face.

At the first performance a clever act will be staged by Senorita Graciosa, with her two tiger whelps. Senorita Graciosa has trained the whelps herself, and plays with them as with a pair of kittens. They are said to be the "only young tigers" in captivity trained to perform.

The last act of the program will be performed by the famous "Giant" elephant.

Newhall, president of the Newhall Engineering Company, McNeil tried to show by the witness that Adolph Segal had made a practice of building refineries for the purpose of selling out to the "sugar trust."

Judge Hand told District Attorney Wise that he did not think letters written by David E. Stetzer to his cousin, Washington B. Thomas, introduced yesterday, were admissible, according to the statutes, and ruled them out.

BELOVED SISTER DIES AT CONVENT

Teacher in Holy Names School Dead After Three Years of Illness.

Sister John Berchman O'Neill, known to the world as Miss Christine O'Neill died at the Convent of the Holy Names on Webster street Sunday afternoon after an illness of five weeks, the culmination of heart trouble from which she has suffered for the last three years.

Decedent was a San Francisco girl, educated at St. Joseph's school in this city, and made her religious profession at the convent, which is the provincial house of the order, some twenty years ago, up to the time of her demise. She spent several years at St. Rose's Parochial school and in the Academy of the Holy Names at Shorb in Southern California. Three years ago she returned to Oakland. Her great work as a teacher was done at St. Joseph's school, it being said by those who knew her best among the sisters that her influence was more widespread and beneficial than that which distinguishes the work of most teachers.

Sister John Berchman O'Neill came from a religious family, two other sisters being members of the same order. The two sisters, Mary Marcella, who is Superior of the convent at Shorb, and Sister Mary Edwin, a religieuse in the same institution, were called to Oakland two weeks ago, and remained with the nun until she passed away.

The other surviving members of the family are Mrs. James Denny and Mrs. Robert Boland, both of Alameda, the parents of James and Margaret O'Neill, having died some years ago.

The funeral services were held at the convent chapel this morning at 9 o'clock.

They consisted of a requiem mass, which was celebrated by Rev. Father P. J. Keane of St. Francis de Sales church.

CHECK OPERATOR FOOLS FLORISTS

Latest Scheme to Defraud Is Reported to the San Francisco Police.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 19.—The latest scheme of the buccaneer man is being worked upon florists of this city, and a warning issued this morning sent out by the police to all merchants to be on the lookout for the operator. Persons who purchase flowers in profusion are usually persons of means. The address given, if it is on Pacific Heights, or Presidio Terrace or in the fashionable Gordon tract, is often sufficient to blind the eyes of the otherwise sharp merchant.

The culprit in this instance has been in the habit of ordering flowers for a residence in one of the sections inhabited by the upper ten, and paying for them in a check, receiving a substantial amount in change. The size of the order and the location of the recipient has in every case won over the salesman to the genuineness of his customer.

The man has given to different florists the names of James Moynihan or R. W. Summers. He usually wears a blue suit and a black derby hat, is five feet 11 inches tall, about 37 years old and weighs 175 pounds.

SPEND FOUR DAYS ON BARREN ISLAND

BIRMINGHAM, Wash., March 19.—After being marooned on Vandova Island, which is uninhabited, for four days without food, Frank Baker and F. W. Baker, two Bellingham business men, succeeded in reaching safety at Eliza Island. The men removed their clothing and used it as a sail for their small launch which had been wrecked by the gale Saturday. They drifted about during the greater part of Saturday night, bailing water out of the boat constantly to prevent it from sinking.

When you aren't known at the bank, you must have your check endorsed.

That's just what an automobile guarantee amounts to—an endorsement that somehow or other the check will be made good. There is one guarantee that is worth something—but it doesn't come on lithographed paper. It is the guarantee of accomplishment. It stands behind your car in the shape of more than 100,000 satisfied owners, when you buy a Ford.
